The Energies of the Planetary Cycles

We have been so enthusiastically invited that we are here!

Feel this special moment. What a joy in our hearts to be able to communicate with you, to connect with you from our heart, from our vibratory frequency, from Telos.

I am not alone. Thousands responded to this call. Thousands from the inner earth and from the outer world. There is even a whole delegation from Planet Venus that has come forward to connect with you today. Welcome them in your heart as we welcomed them in ours. There is also a delegation from Sirius, Aldebaran, Orion, a delegation from several of the inner Light Cities and we are all with you today at this very moment to celebrate our reunion, to celebrate our reconnection between dimensions.

For us, this spring's equinox is very special because a large door opens for many of the lightworkers operating on the surface of the Earth. A large door towards Self Love, towards our brothers and sisters of the Earth who begin to realize that to love oneself is vital, that to learn to love all that they are is important, important! This is the basis of the New Life because how can you communicate with beings of the Love dimensions if you do not love yourself ?

When you do not love yourself, it creates a great distortion in all your sacred geometry fields, in all your visible and invisible bodies. This creates such a great distortion that it is impossible for you to adjust to the harmony waves of the Consciousness One, because each of you represents a part of that Consciousness One; each of you as well as each of us.

The great difference between us and you, our brothers and sisters, bearers of Light torches in density is that we are aware that we belong to Love. We first recognize ourselves as belonging to the Love and we welcome ourselves as such with Love, with all that we are, knowing very well that this Love will help us grow.

Have you noticed? The way you behave with yourself is not helping you right now.

When you criticize yourself, when you underestimate the importance you have in the Life of Creation; how can you sow, recognize your vibratory frequency, recognize your connection with All That Is? Your inner Universe is so confused, filled with distortion, that you are all mixed up! You are so mixed up that you feel that you are separated from everything. All that because of the way you look at yourself!

The way you look at yourself keeps you in separation because that way of looking at yourself does not carry the signature of Love! Since it is not bearing the signature of Love, it separates you from Love. It's like you are saying: "I'm not Love, I do not recognize that I'm Love, I'm not Love!" You cannot feel the connection with all that is Love around you, because all that is Love in the multi-dimensions is around you, and you separate from it, by choice, by ignorance, by unconsciousness.

Do you begin to understand, my dear brothers and sisters of the Earth, how important it is to learn to love yourself, to learn to welcome the greatness that you are, to learn to change your perception of your inner universe, your way of thinking, seeing, feeling?

Why do you not choose to color everything with the word Love, with the word trust, with the word adventure, with joy? They all represent conscious choices to make. All of this is possible if and only if you believe it. Isn't it extraordinary? It all depends on you, the choices you choose to make, the beliefs you choose to keep!

You are a world of energies! So why not live in this world of energies, connecting to joy, choosing joy, coloring your eyes with pink, coloring your thoughts with pink, hope, kindness, patience, compassion, understanding, unlimitedness, eternity? All this represents only choices. These are choices. So what choices are you going to make now about the person you are?

This universe that you radiate, that you carry; it is a yes or a no, a choice that leads you to freedom, eternity, expansion, joy or a choice that presents what you are now in version 1, version 2 and version 3. It's simple!

So, how do we live this equinox and this solstice that are coming? Simply by welcoming the energies that will make grow all that is most positive, most luminous, most loving, most love, in us.

We are doing part of these celebrations to highlight the changes of cycles in this dimension. We take some of this time simply to welcome all the levels of consciousness that come to accompany us in this cycle that begins. Levels of consciousness to which we are entitled, which are in perfect harmony with all that we are and directly assigned by the Source Itself, for our greater good.

Each one of us is aware that we are starting a cycle accompanied by vibratory frequencies that become anchored in us, to make us grow in the perfection that we are and to discover new inner and outer adventures, and our real place in Creation; knowing that this real place changes every second, every minute and in every cycle.

So, for us, the solstices and equinoxes represent an opportunity to grow, to blossom, to expand towards the manifestation of the most beautiful, the most perfect in us at a higher level. Aware that all creation supports this expansion of consciousness of energies that we are for the cycle which is being born and which will accompany us until the beginning of the next cycle. Isn't it extraordinary?

We also invite you, our brothers and sisters of the Earth, to become aware that whenever there is a change of season in your dimension, there is a change of energy guard that accompanies you for the new cycle. Change of energy consciousness ready to be welcomed in your heart. Ready to support and assist the expansion of the perfection that you are towards more perfection, Love, Light, Beauty.

And if, from now on, you are aware of this potential, of this multidimensional reality that is being played out for you, for humanity, the planet and all of Creation, you become an agent of change, of accelerated transformation for yourself and for humanity.

So, tonight, you are all invited to the Temple of Divine and Sacred Transformation. You are all invited to welcome the sacred energetic vibratory frequencies which are reserved for you and which will accompany you in this cycle of change for you and for humanity.

You are all invited. With our greatest Love, our greatest Light, kindness and appreciation, we are waiting for you tonight in this Temple where many of your brothers and sisters from Telos have already made an appointment to welcome you. Many of your ancestral lineage, your extraterrestrial families are ready to welcome you because, in fact, if you choose it, you begin an extraordinary cycle of consciousness expansion. This truth that I reveal to you today can literally transform your lives, and we reveal it to you today because humanity is ready. Humanity is ready to work with the transformative energies of this planet's cycles.

You are ready now for this truth and it is an honor for me to have revealed to you.

We, from Telos, greet you, we love you and we are waiting for you tonight in this great Temple of Divine Transformation in which you are all invited for the first time in thousands of years.

Thank you!
