

Merlin

We are the Magician of our own lives

Welcome! Welcome to the world of magic! My name is Merlin the Magician that you only heard about in the last hundred years.

I am in this now moment placing the hat of a magician on each one of your heads. The hat of magic, a symbol, an image, a picture to remind you the magic of life and for you to realize that you are the magician of your own life. You are part of the action and the movement of life in that dimension. You are not the ones that don't understand there is something going on in this world. You are part of the ones that know, that are conscious that there is something very special going on in this dimension.

So today, I am offering you a tool, a magician hat, the hat of all possibilities, a symbol, an image, a picture that I want you to keep in your heart to remind you that you are a magician.

You are an energy learning to play with energy. You are part of the consciousness and today you are opening new eyes upon your power, the power inside you, the power of life inside you. You are realizing that you are more energy than density, than matter. You are a being of energy. That is so true! That is so true!

Feel these words live inside of you. Feel that you truly are a consciousness of energy. You are an eternal energy! You belong to the creation. You belong to the magic of creation in these very special days that you are living together in this very sacred house. I want you to feel that you hold in your hand the magic of life. You hold in your life the magic of life. You hold in your creativity the magic of life. It is all part of you.

There is no veil that separates you from the magic of life. That veil is just the belief system that you have accepted, the belief system that was causing a distortion around you to make you feel separated from the power of life.

Now, as you are realizing that there is no veil, you realize there is just energy and that you are part of it. So, everything, all the doors are opening for you, the doors of magic! The doors manipulating energies, manifesting into density from energy, and using energy. You are starting to walk on a new path, the path reuniting, connecting the visible to the invisible. This is truly a new path.

I am inviting each one of you to ask for guidance on this new path. I strongly suggest that each morning you start your day by asking to be guided to walk on the path of the 5th dimension. To open yourself to the guidance of life on this new path that is presenting itself in front of you. And truly, this very day, you are living together in this house and opening a new door.

So, embrace the hat of the magician that you are by welcoming it into your life! Do not put up resistance to the magic of life, do not resist the idea, the thought that you are a magician. Do not compare what you think a magician should be to what will come and manifest into your life from this day, from this now moment.

Welcome the magic in your life without expectations. Welcome “all possibilities”. Just become the observer of the magic of life that will manifest in your life. Stay in this energy. Stay in this frequency of being the magician welcoming the magic of life. Welcome the activity of the consciousness into your life and around you with the people around you, with the event around you because you are now connected to a different frequency, the frequency of the true life, of the energy, the frequency of creation.

Just feel that you are starting a new adventure and that everything is possible! Today, I give you the magician hat that you are. This hat is a symbol, it is the symbol of your achievement. It is the symbol of what you are at in your life.

Whenever there is a thought in your mind that tries to take you back to your old life, say :
“NO, I have my hat!” And put your magician hat on your head to remind you that you are in this frequency now and that everything is possible! That life is guiding you! Life is nurturing you! Life is with you! Inside you!

Open your heart, keep your heart open to welcome this new way of perceiving yourself and perceiving life around you and inside of you. It is simple! It is just a way of looking at yourself. It is just a way of feeling yourself, of feeling life around you. It is a simple thing, a simple way of opening your eyes and seeing differently, allowing the magic to take place, welcoming the magic into your life. Because you are truly magical! And you are magical in a world of magic! Because creation is magical! Creation is consciousness and Creation and Consciousness are ONE in an unlimited way at all levels that you cannot even imagine.

If you want to understand magic, you just need to allow it! Welcome it in your life! Allow it in your life and be the one with the eyes of a child that is in full admiration on what is going on, and of what will manifest into your life.

The way you think, the way you believe, the way you welcome this energy will direct, will enable, will allow this energy to manifest or not in your life. The more you see it, the more you expect it, the happier you are because you know that magic is there. You know it is coming toward you. You know it is all around you. You feel it. The more you are living your life this way, the more you are welcoming the manifestation of magic into your life.

It is not something that is difficult! It is something that is very easy! So simple that most human beings reject it. They are expecting something out of the way, out of the blue, all of a sudden. No! Do not have any expectations! Just allow magic to do its job with creativity around you and within you. Just that! Expecting adventure, expecting the unexpected without form, structure, or control! Just allow it and believe in it. Admire the difference, admire the magic, admire the miracle that will come toward you, the change that will come toward you at all levels of your life. It is that simple because true Consciousness, Love, Life are simple and respectful.

These are the words that I want to share with you today because to be in unity is simple! To feel unity and oneness is simple! Welcome oneness and allow oneness to take over all of your life, all aspects of your life. Welcome and allow it with joy in your heart. It is simple! It is magical!

I am Merlin. Merlin, the magician. Merlin that your heart knows. Thank you!
