

Translated by Janine Leclerc

Denise Laberge

Invocation

I invite the Archangels Michael, Gabriel, Raphael and Uriel to position themselves around us to keep us in the energies of Light, Love and Peace throughout this encounter with the Holy Light.

We invite our brothers and sisters of Telos, the High Council of Telos, Adama, Ahnahmar, Aurelia, the Masters of the Seven Sacred Flames, Lord Lanto, Paul the Venetian, Hilarion, El Morya, Lady Nada, Sananda, Serapis Bey, Saint Germain, the Masters of the five Sacred Rays and the Masters of all of the Love Flames representing the attributes of the Source in all of us, in all of our brothers and sisters of the Earth.

We invite in a very special way the presence of Mother Earth in our hearts today to open some chakras, to allow the opening of the chakras reconnecting with her power, her Love, her Life, since our body has its roots in her, is enveloped by her energy of Love.

And we invite our I AM Presence, our inner deities to open our heart in a very special way to receive the energies that are being poured on our group today; to receive the energies of resurrection, of consciousness, of transmutation, the energies of Life.

I also invite all the Angels, all the Archangels, all of our guides, all the Light Beings of the Light dimensions to come and share with us their Light, their Peace, their Joy.

We also invite all the kingdoms who share this beautiful planet with us: the animals, the plants, the crystals, the sea world, the birds, all this beauty, all this Life around us. We invite them into our heart, the heart that we are now forming together, and into our individual hearts. We ask the Source, Father Mother God Creator, the Divine Mother to bless the Life in us, the Life on this planet, and to bless this dimension for the greatest good of all.

Sananda

This Heart in you

I envelop you in my energy of Light and Peace, my children. I am Sananda. I am the one who knows so well each of your hearts, who knows so well each of your thoughts, each of your lives.

I know this because I walk with you. I often walk with you all day long, to begin the magical adventure that a new day brings for you. Yes, I walk with each of my children who are in a mission on this planet right now because, make no mistake, you are on a mission, a mission of Love.

Yes, the people, mankind, this humanity, walking in the great desert of oblivion for themselves need Love. And you are there among them holding high the torch of who you are. Well, I tell you today, even though you already know it, you represent Christ in this dimension. You represent the Unity Consciousness, the one that speaks of Love, the one that walks towards unity, towards the awakening of the consciousness of this humanity.

You act like a magnet; you attract to yourself vibrations, frequencies that you amplify with your daily work on yourself. Know this!

With each step you take, you increase your vibrational frequency, you increase the light in your heart; and this vibrational frequency, this light spreads all around you and on the entire planet. Yes, because this planet is a Consciousness and you belong to this Consciousness, you are not separate from the great movement of Life that is spreading on this planet right now, bringing new energy.

You really are the antennas of the Luminous Heart of the Planetary Consciousness, of the Luminous Heart of the Christ returning to its place in the heart of the life in this dimension. You see, Christ is not only a person, like many people on this planet think right now. Christ is a Consciousness of Love, my children. It is the Consciousness of Love that allowed this world to exist, to live, to have manifested itself.

Christ is the Love that binds the atoms, the cells; that allows form to take shape; that allows the Light to condense and take shape. That is the Christ, my children. It is the Life, it is the Love, it is the Light, it is 'All That Is' in this dimension, in this manifested universe.

It is what binds the Light, that unites everything and that allows manifestation. And who are you, my dear children? You are a manifestation of the Almighty, a manifestation of Christ walking among humans. And I wish this to become more and more a truth for each of you. A truth that you welcome without a doubt, without inner soul searching, only with the joy of being, the joy of living, the joy of experimenting in this dimension. For all that you live is an experiment, a learning process.

All these vibrations, all these emotions, all these frequencies you experience, you live, are part of a learning process to polish the million facets of the diamond that is your unique heart, because each of you represents the sum of some divine sacred attributes taken directly from the heart of the Source.

The Source created everything: the universe, this planet, all that is around you, the form you are using. Any form carries a vibrational signature, a frequency, a life. You are here among your brothers and sisters, this means that there is a treasure in you, a vibrational sum, a vibrational frequency representing you as the god, the goddess that you are, a part of the Source; and at the same time, all the attributes of the Source that are available to you.

It is like the seed you sow: it contains all the potential of that plant, of all the fruits it will produce. And by your influence on it my children, the plant could bear more fruits or more branches.

This dimension was well thought out, organized to serve as a school for the creators of the future, the creators of the universes that you are. You influence what is around you, my children, have you noticed? This seed you put in the ground, which is a tomato plant for example, is connected to your heart. The life potential of this seed you planted feels the vibration of your heart and automatically seeks to harmonize with it, in order to produce the fruit that will harmonize perfectly with the energies you carry.

This plant feels the divine, sacred, unique vibrational frequency that represents you because it connects with your heart. It will produce for you a fruit that will respect, that will share with you "the best of the best" of what is in harmony with your heart, in your heart. This is a revelation that I want to share with you today, to make you understand how everything surrounding you connects and aligns with you.

The whole Nature is alive around you: the trees, the stones, the crystals, the plants, the water, the air; everything carries the Life, the Consciousness One. And who says "consciousness", says "intelligence", says "communication", says "exchange".

When you walk near a tree, this tree recognizes you, it feels you. You can talk to the tree and you can ask for patience, for help in anchoring yourself to the Earth and to the sources of life of this planet. You can also ask to be taught to listen, to communicate with the trees, the air, the water.

My dear children, your heart is the vortex of the Consciousness One in you. It communicates with all that is around you, in every moment. So the questions I want to ask you today is: what energy do you wish to carry in you? What message do you want to spread around you? What thought do you agree to feed and nourish in yourself in order to make it grow, to feel it, to live it? Who are you?

I ask all these questions to help you recognize yourself, and identify who you are. What makes your heart vibrate? The type of life, the life you lead: what is it? What does it mean to you? What impact do you have around you? Who are you?

Well! This represents an aspect of the Greatness within you, an aspect of you: The God Creator walking in this dimension, in this school exchanging and communicating with All That Is around you. For All That Is around you is Consciousness, is alive and waiting for your commands, your orders, because it is there to harmonize itself with you, to serve you, to show you how much you are the master of this universe. Not just any master, we emphasize this.

All these elements around you, materialized, densified, obey only one Law: The Law of Love. So to really communicate with this tree around you, before you, you must first go into your heart. Feel your heart, and become aware of the energy in you. The life within you and that you use every second is intelligent. It has all the powers and, because it has all the powers, you can do everything starting with this life, using this life, being aware of the life in you and around you. This heart, this energy within you is intelligent, it can guide you, it can teach you. Its language is Love.

I will ask you a few questions now: Do you like your life? Do you like what you bring to this Creation? Do you unconditionally love this temple that you are using now, among your brothers and sisters.

Well! The answer to each of these questions is important because it describes the vibration, the Love frequency you carry for Life. For you are Life in action, each of you, with all that you do in your day, all the thoughts running through you, all the actions, the smiles you do, your way of looking at everything around you. You are Life in Action! You are the Life of Christ in action, each of you. Now, presently, in this moment, forever!

And what is lacking in your heart to be aware of who you are? Two things: first, accept, welcome this truth that yes, and again yes, you are Christ in action, now, with all that you are, everything you do, everything you breathe in and exhale. Second, commit yourself to love more and more every day all that you are, recognizing the Greatness of the Life that is in you. By learning to appreciate and love all that you are, you change your vibrational frequency, my children, you infuse in it the frequency of unconditional love for yourself and for All That Is.

By infusing the frequency of Love in all that you are, you change the frequency, the vibration. You become a sun, and that sun warms the hearts all around you with the energy it exudes in all Creation. And all these flowers, the trees, the animals around you feel the love, the warmth of the sun rays of your heart and, naturally, they come to you, they feel your love, your Light.

They open to you. They begin to share energy with you, to share understandings and you return to being One among Creation. One in unity with Life in all things, you take back your place. That is what I came to show two thousand years ago, me, by being Jesus. I walked among my brothers and sisters, I spread the Love of My Heart, the Light of My Heart in your hearts that are now radiating around you.

You do exactly what I did, two thousand years ago. You walk among your brothers and sisters and you spread your Light around you. This world is changing one heart at a time, my children, starting with yours. Because the more you will receive these words in your heart, the more you will open yourself to this truth, the more your heart will shine, guide you, and teach you.

I invite you to feel your heart now. Feel it. It is the presence of Life in you, my children, that Life which is all intelligence, all creativity, all imagination and mainly Omnipotence.

If you contemplate your lives now, you might not be satisfied. And why would that be? Why would the life you are currently living not be satisfying for you? It is very simple my children: you are a great cosmic antennae and it is your choice today, to let certain energies come in and to stop some other energies from entering.

Let me explain: when you listen to the radio and they talk about murders, deaths, accidents, what are you doing? You are allowing energies to enter in yourself that speak of ending, that speak of sadness, that speak of fear, that speak of all that is the negation of True Life.

When you listen to music that delights your heart, you welcome in yourself an energy that gives you wings, that brings you peace, that regenerates you. So, you are the master on board, you are the supreme authority using this temple, having these thoughts, this mental body, this astral body allowing you to feel, to see, to decide, to choose. Who uses this temple now? What thoughts live in you, my children? What do you allow entrance in you? What energies? What frequencies?

Well! You are, each of you, a shepherd in charge of a flock, the flock of your thoughts. These thoughts that inhabit you and are yours, are connected to your heart; they speak of joy, love, peace; the values you believe in; the reason why you are here on Earth.

All that you have brought throughout all these incarnations is in you now; this is what you radiate. But around you, there is a great sea of thoughts, of energies. The sea is created by the thoughts and the emotions of the whole humanity and you swim in this ocean, my children, you literally swim in the thoughts of the humanity, in the emotions and the fears of this humanity.

Today I invite you to take control of the temple, of this being that you are, of this heart and this consciousness that you are; and only allow to enter into you that which is in harmony with what you want to live, what you choose to feel, to spread around you.

This is a task for every moment, every second, since you literally swim in this ocean of thoughts. This requires training; but it especially requires commitment. With commitment and determination, everything becomes easier! So I, your brother Jesus/Sananda, who loves you with a deep Love, an eternal Love, I invite you to meditate on your heart, that power within you. I invite you to meditate on this Life in you, on its greatness; and I invite you to make choices for yourself, to create more joy, more freedom, more Love in your lives. For such is the goal, isn't it?

Getting to live every day, every second in this dimension with a smile because you know who you are; you know that joy is for you, you deserve it, it comes to you, that you create it every day.

May the joy of Life surround you, embrace you, show you the way and may it eliminate all obstacles with ease for each of you! Because aren't you the Creator of your life?

And if by the power of your heart, you order Life to help you, to guide you with joy and ease; why wouldn't it be so? Since you decree it, you believe it, you manifest it!

On these words, my children, I share the Joy of My Heart, the Peace of my Heart with all of you and I walk with you. Thank you!

Mary Open your Heart to Life

I envelop you with the joy, the Life and the color of my Heart. I am your sister Mary! The whole family is gathered here. We, of the Planetary Hierarchy of this planet, are forming a circle around you now. We are thousands working on the project Ascension Earth, the ascension of human hearts, of Love, and the resurrection of Love. Do you feel that energy, my children?

I invite you to contemplate, at this time, the Light within your Heart. Where there is life, there is Light, color, wonder and peace. I place these words in your Heart now.

You see, your Heart is waiting for you, every second and every minute. For many of the children of this humanity, this Heart lives isolated, by itself, disconnected from spirit. Most of the children of the Source who walk on the surface of this planet now, do not take the time to take a pause and say: "What do I feel? What do I want? Where is my joy? Where is my dream? Where are the energies that carry my dream?" If humans stopped and asked these questions: "This gesture I am about to do, is it really what I want to do? Does it resonate with me? Do I feel joy in my Heart when I think of doing it?"

Well, my children, if humans stopped a few seconds, a few minutes before taking action, this planet would not be the same! It would be a planet of joy, abundance, peace, sharing.

Who are you, my children? You are the ones learning, and learning again to listen to your Heart and to live according to what you feel. What you feel my children! Not what you think and what you want. No! What you feel! This is a new language.

As I am speaking to you right now, I observe each one of you. I am currently reviewing each of your lives since your beginning in this dimension, since your earthly birth. I have before me all these records. I invite you to go inside yourself and to look at the records with me: all you have done, all the choices, all the achievements or non-achievements you have made, all this Life that brought you to this moment, to this day. I invite you to observe how you lived your life so far? Did you get up every day feeling joy, breathing the joy of living, of being alive. Are you aware of the magic you spread around you and that you came to experience in this dimension?

Consider that, if since your birth you had listened to your Heart each day, your life today would be a Life filled with magic! A dream life! A Life bringing you joy, abundance, peace, everything your Heart dreams of and desires! Why would this be? Because your heart knows why you are here! Your Heart listens to the entire Universe and knows where your best place is, and what the best choices are for the experiences you had planned in this Life.

These words may be hard to believe right now because I speak of a way of life that is very different from the one you have experienced so far. I speak of a life in tune with Life, in connection with Life, because directing your life from your Heart means to be conscious of your place in the Universe. It is being aware of your connection with the universe, of the dreams that inhabit you and that you came to materialize in this dimension. By being aware of all this, you follow your Heart. You follow with absolute confidence, unconditional Love for yourself! You make these choices and actions while respecting yourself. You take action by following your intuition, your Heart, and the joy of your Heart.

By acting in this way my children, you are always in the best place at the right time and you always make the best choices. You are in the flow of Life and the Life that knows you does everything in its power to give you the best of the best in every instant. You are in the right place at the right time. You create abundance for nothing interferes between you and the majestic and powerful flow of Life. You are One with this flow.

This is what you are learning! Before this Life, the connection with the Universe was almost impossible because my children, the veil of forgetfulness was heavy and thick. This veil is thinning. We are in the process of disintegrating it for all Humanity. We are watching this people, this humanity awaken. Listen to these words! Listen to this dream in you! Listen to the Heart within you! It knows everything since it is connected to the Source of Sources. It is part of Life.

I, Mary, today use these words, I emit vibrations, energies toward each of you to invite you to reconnect to Life, to trust Life again, and to stop doubting. The energy in which the whole humanity bathes at the moment does not promote trust in life. It is an energy that brings and calls for separation, doubt, fear. The weaving of all these emotions thus brings a state of survival. And you my dear children, my radiant and living suns in this ocean of doubts and fears, I invite you today to ignore all these energies around you. Ignore them and enlighten them with your love! Replace all that lives in you with absolute trust, wonderful wisdom, and the fantastic intelligence of the Life in you. I invite you to dare to walk into the unknown, to dare to trust Life, to open your Heart to Life for all the circumstances that present themselves to you. That, I tell you, is a quite a contract!

And why is that? Because there is still interference, but let me tell you: "The more you practice to trust, to see the beauty and perfection in all things in life, the more you will attract it to yourself. The more you allow the great Magic of Life to manifest in you and around you, the more everything works with resonance and attraction in this world." Do you understand these words my dear children?

Everything works according to resonance and attraction! The more you trust life, the more you allow this life to embrace you in its magic, its power. The more you open your Heart, the more it can intervene in your lives and guide you to the right place, the right time, to make the right choice. The choice that brings you more happiness, more joy and freedom and allows you to fulfill all your dreams. This Life, my children, is an Intelligent Consciousness that knows each of your dreams. And how does it manage to recognize them? Because it is Life itself that placed them in you! Life lays its dreams in each of you and, in doing so, automatically prepares the environmental conditions, solutions, and choices that will help you achieve those dreams. The dream within you, my children, is the dream of Life for you, just waiting for your trust, your love to present you this dream on a gold and silver platter. This is the truth!

And today I am using those words to resonate, vibrate this truth within you. This dream in you is real, true; and Life around you is there, ready to support you to achieve it. Otherwise, this dream would not be in you, and you would not even have the slightest idea of its existence.

What is missing? What condition do you need to fulfill for this dream to become reality? Only one condition, my children! The Infinite Love for this Life in you and around you. The Infinite Love that trusts blindly this Love and Life, recognizing its power within you and around you, recognizing the supreme authority of the Great Consciousness One that takes back its place in this world to bring freedom, joy, peace, abundance.

My dear children, luminous stars in this somber ocean represented by this humanity, I came to salute you today, salute your Heart and this Power that is now at your service because you are conscious of it.

I am Mary! Mary who loves you, supports you and often comfort your hearts. Thank you!

Adama

Life obeys you

Today I stand before you, I am Adama. I stand today with the title of high priest of the Very High. I am accompanied by the priests of the Very High at the service to the unique heart of the Almighty.

I invite you to go in your heart because today we welcome, we honor, we glorify life in each of you. We, of the Hierarchy of this planet, of the Hierarchy of love that oversees the Ascension of this planet, of this consciousness; we recognize, we glorify, we honor the life in all of you. Because this life, in each of you my dear children, is the same life that is in us, in our hearts, the same life that shines in the heart of Mother Earth and of the sun, in this 3rd dimensional ocean. That life inside of you has all the powers my children. Breathe it in! Become conscious that your heart is Christ living in you, is the life of the Consciousness One in you. This Consciousness that pushes you to reconnect to the Life in you and around you, this same Consciousness that comes to awaken the heart of humanity.

Yes, learn to honor your heart, to glorify it, to love it, to recognize its importance for you, to recognize its pure essence in each of you my children. Your heart represents your identity, your vibration, your essence, the consciousness that you came to manifest and experience in this dimension.

Are you conscious of this power within you my children? Are you conscious that it is Christ who walks in you, through you, with you? Are you conscious that you are a projection, an extrapolation of His consciousness manifested in this dimension, you, each of you who are hearing these words presently?

We came in large numbers today. We are surrounding you. Several Great Masters, many Luminous Consciousnesses from several dimensions of Light are around you right now. We invite you to open your heart to receive this infusion of love we are directing towards each of you. This infusion of unconditional and respectful love that honors the presence of the Almighty in each of you.

My dear children, my friends, my family, I invite you to start each day by taking valuable time to connect, to honor the Life and the power in you. You see, that power only awaits your recognition to become active, to support your reconnection with the Great Life that is in action now on this entire planet.

Yes, the only thing missing is you, your belief in yourself, in this Life you live. The only thing missing is a little interest on your part to recognize who you are, which we recognize. Oh yes! This is the time, the great historic moment for each of you. It is the time to welcome yourself, to recognize who you are, the great historic moment expected for thousands of years; and you are currently living it. This life, you are living now, is the Life for which you prepared yourself even before you incarnated in this dimension millions of years ago.

Everything is ready! Everything is ready for all of you hearing these words now. Everything is ready to assist you, to assist your awakening. You carry within each of you the seeds of Light that you have chosen, that you have selected to carry up to this life. In this lifetime, they are ready to sprout. For this event to happen my children, it is first necessary that you become aware of who you are. You must first realize, accept, and that word is important, accept the truth of these words because if you do not accept the truth of these words, these seeds will remain seeds. They will not grow; they will not flourish in you. This is an essential condition to respect: to decide to stand up, to decide to welcome, to accept that you are a Christ, an aspect of the living Christ now in this dimension and to commit to do everything to let this Christ grow in you.

And this commitment, what is it? You simply commit to loving yourself every day more and more, to loving all that you are with all these little ripples in you, everything in you and around you, because it is through this love, this frequency, this feeling that these seeds will be able to grow and manifest in your lives.

These seeds are the sacred, divine, eternal attributes you specifically selected and chose to manifest in this life now, in consciousness in a human form. This life is the beginning of your eternity, the beginning of your eternal consciousness. It is very simple! That is why, my dear children, we have come to be with you today at this very moment.

(Silence)

When you look in the mirror in the morning, who do you see my children? Do you recognize that you are the Source in action, Christ in action? Do you acknowledge that you allow Christ to manifest himself through you? Do you agree that it is Christ who speaks through you? Who lives in you? Is expressed through you?

Well! I tell you, the more you will recognize this, the more you will identify yourself to this truth, the more it will be, the more it will manifest, the more your awareness will grow, the more your reconnection to the Universe, to the Unity, to the Consciousness One will occur rapidly. It is as simple as that!

Your intention, your belief directs all the energy in you and around you. It directs the flow of Life in you. My children, you color the flow of Life through your intent, your belief, through what you believe in. So if you believe that you are a mere human, well, life will manifest through you in a way that will prove that you are a mere human, because it obeys you.

Life, around you my children, is in complete resonance with your deep belief of who you think you are. It manifests to you and around you exactly every situation, every relationship, in perfect harmony with the person you think you are. The energies that are currently poured on the planet accelerate the response of this universe in which you bathe, accelerate the Life response according to what you think you are, according to the limitations that you have accepted in your lives, the doubts, the fears that you continue feeding in your lives.

There is an acceleration of events, situations, emotions that come to you, manifest in you in order to harmonize perfectly with the heart vibration you choose to maintain and grow inside you. It is mathematical. It is scientific. It is human and it is divine. It is all that at the same time.

Well! The good news, my dear children, is that by your intention, by what you choose to feed yourself, you can do everything! I declare today that everything is possible for you, that the power of life around you and within you is at your service now. And this amplification will increase even further over the next decade. So hold on to your hats, my children!

I ask you today to welcome the truth of the power living in you. Why? This is not a whim of my will. No, far from that! It is because in welcoming the truth of life within you, in welcoming the grand, magical, divine, sacred aspect of the Creation in you, you change the rails of your destiny and those words are true! Now you have the ability to completely change the rails of your destiny simply by mastering, by choosing the intentions and the beliefs you choose to grow within you.

The energies that are being poured on Earth currently facilitate change and push humans despite themselves to make changes. This acceleration requires humans to make several choices simultaneously. The Great Life, that wants to save this humanity and to bring Love again in the human heart, often pushes humans to make choices that they could not have made without this turmoil. Life saves humans despite themselves. Do not be fooled by appearances my children. There is a great awakening movement right now that pushes humans to make different choices in spite of themselves.

So, today we are with you to celebrate the Great Life within you, to celebrate the Great Life that is changing the vibration of the heart of this humanity, the heart of man, and this despite himself. It is an honor for us today to come in such large numbers to honor the Life in your hearts, to honor that part of Life that you represent, that you manifest in the Great Plan.

(Silence)

Breathe the peace. Breathe the peace of your hearts my children. This peace where everything is possible, becomes clearer and magical. Learn to go with the flow of Life, to trust it. Learn to trust yourself, to trust your intuition, your heart, this dream within you. Do the test and follow it. Dare to act. Pronounce words that you feel. Act according to what calls you, what speaks to you. Show the way to your brothers and sisters. Teach them to respect themselves by respecting yourself, to express their truth by asserting your own truth, to love by loving yourself. Teach them the new Life, the one you are discovering, the one you are living.

With these words, we glorify the Almighty who lives in each of you, who expands in this dimension, who transforms this world thanks to each of you.

I am Adama, this brother from Telos, this brother from the city of Light that is not so far from any of you. You often come to visit us at night. We have also prepared a crash course for this class you represent. Now, we are putting a garland of flowers around your necks. They are flowers from Telos, special flowers of love for each of you that make you vibrate, that nourish the seeds of life you carry and that you have come to manifest in this world.

You might ask the question: 'but what could I bring to this world?' Well! I tell you, you bring your life to it. You bring all that you are with all your values, your hopes, your beliefs, your Love. It is not necessary to put a name, a word, an attribute on what you represent. No. Look at you! You are the wonderful totality!

What prevents you my children from finding the qualifiers of what you represent is the doubt that you maintain and you continue to maintain concerning yourself, your heart, the being of Light, the Eternity that you are. Forget all the beliefs you have about what you think you are, and that your mind tells you. Just go into your heart and listen to it!

Learn to feel yourself. Learn to appreciate who you are, because the more you will appreciate who you are, the more you will be able to identify these treasures in yourself. My children, put in the trash your beliefs about yourself, about what you think you should be as a spiritual being, about what you were taught, about your belief of what a perfect human being must be, should look like, must be comparable to! Get rid of all that!

Look at you, you. You, the glory of glories who took on a human form to walk again among the children of Earth. You, the mystery of mysteries. And these words are true! You, the greatness of greatness. You, the sun of the suns. You, the Great Life in action my children. Forget everything that was imposed on you in this dimension and learn to feel yourself.

How can you feel yourself? Simply by loving yourself. Loving the Life that you are, the Life you manifest, that smile that you spread and to which people around you respond, these words of love that you spread. Learn to love yourself. The more you are going to love yourself, the more you will discover the richness, the treasures that define you as Divine Beings who took human forms on Earth. This is the recipe to follow. This is the Ascension protocol toward yourself. The Ascension protocol in the True Life, in reconnection with the Universe.

We are honored, we are privileged to know you, to work with you, we of the Planetary Hierarchy, of the worlds of Light, of your universal family. I am Adama, who has spoken on behalf of all those hearts, on behalf of all that Love that came today to envelop you and embrace you.

Thank you!